

A Message To Our Clients Amid Coronavirus (COVID-19)

To our clients and friends,

The COVID-19 pandemic is affecting everyone around the world. We want to update you as it relates to our services. Our firm is closely monitoring and evaluating the situation and like you, we are adapting to these rapidly evolving circumstances. Please be assured that the partners, managers, and entire staff at Prado & Renteria CPAs Prof. Corp. will continue to serve our clients.

To minimize business disruption while maintaining our services, Prado & Renteria has instituted temporary telework protocols, although certain staff may continue to work at client offices, based on mutual decisions with our clients and employees.

We will work with our clients on the safest, most effective method to exchange information.

During these challenging times, we are honoring our commitments to our clients, practicing our core values, and are now more than ever dedicated to providing the Prado & Renteria level of service you have always received from us.

Please reach out to Partner or Manager that works directly with you if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Maria de J. Prado, CPA
Managing Partner
